

I believe that XM radio road and weather reports are as public service to the subscribers of this service. Stopping this service would be like telling any other AM or FM what content they can and can not have as to music or news. In American we are raised on the principal of free commerce and healthy competition, so why change the rules now?